Saturday Offerings in Our Cloak and Suit Department.

If you've waited until now to save on a stylish winter coat you'll appreciate this special offering from our coat department.

We have about twenty of this season's best style WOMEN'S COATS in the long loose effects, which we'll offer you to-morrow at about one-third less than they cost us. The materials are broadcloths and lightweight kerseys, in black, blue and red, all satin lined and perfectly tailored. We've sold them for $25,00 each and have sold a lot of them at that price. As it is getting along toward the end of our selling season, we've cut the price so decidedly that we don't expect to have one of them left at closing time Saturday night. Regular price was $25.00. On Saturday night price is reduced to $11.50

> Good Enough to Charge For. When William H. Scott was managing clerk in the early sixties for the firm of Cleveland & Titus, a client came in and wanted an opinion right away. No member of the firm was in. Accordingly, Mr. Scott, with some hesttation, wrote the opinion. When his principal, Mr. Cleveland, came in, he explained the circumstances and showed him the opinion. Mr. Cleveland looked at him with a smile and then read it with care. "Humph," said he: "pretty poor opinion, but it will do to charge."-New York Times.

A Caustic Reply.

A gentleman once said to a barrister, "That was a very good sermon of your father's today." To which he replied: "Yes. He must have cribbed it from some one."
